DEAREST brother (sister), I command thee to almighty God, and I entrust thee to Him Who created thee, so that when by thy dying thou hast paid the debt to which every man is subject, thou mayest return to thy Maker, to Him Who formed thee from the clay of the earth.

And then, when thy soul goes forth from thy body, may the radiant company of angels come to meet thee. May the assembly of the Apostles, our judges welcome thee. May the victorious army of white robed martyrs meet thee on thy way, May the glittering throng of confessors, bright as lillies, gather about thee. May the glorious choir of virgins receive thee. May the patriarchs enfold thee in the embrace of blessed peace. May St. Joseph, beloved patron of the dying, raise thee high in hope, and may the holy Mother of God, the Virgin Mary, lovingly turn her eyes toward thee. And then, gentle and joyful, may Christ Jesus appear before thee, to assign thee a place forever among those who stand in His presence.

May thou never know anything of the horror in the darkness, of the shrieking in the flames, of the anguish in the place of torment. May the most foul Tempter, with his mob, fall back before thee. May he tremble at thy coming with thy escort of angels and flee into the dread chaos of eternal night.

May God arise and His enemies be scattered; and may those who hate Him flee before his face. As smoke vanishes, so let them vanish; as wax melts before the fire, so may sinners perish before God. But let good men feast, and rejoice in the sight of God. May shame and confusion strike the cohorts of hell; and may the slaves of the Tempter not bar thy way.

THESE things Jesus spoke, and lifting up His eyes to heaven, He said: Father, the hour is come, glorify Thy Son, that Thy Son may glorify Thee. As Thou hast given Him power over all flesh, that He may give eternal life to all whom Thou hast given Him. Now this is eternal life: that they who may know Thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, Whom Thou hast sent. I have glorified Thee on earth; I have finished the work which Thou gavest me to do. And now glorify Thou Me, O Father, with Thyself, with the glory which I had, before the world was, with Thee. I have manifested Thy name to the men whom Thou hast given Me out of the world. Thine they were, and to Me Thou gavest them; and they have kept Thy word. Now they have known, that all things which Thou hast given Me, are from Thee. Because the words which Thou gavest Me, I have given to them; and they have received them, and have known in very deed that I came out from Thee, and they have believed that Thou didst send Me. I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them whom Thou hast given Me, because they are Thine, and Thine are Mine; and I am glorified in them. And now I am not in the world, and these are in the world, and I come to Thee. Holy Father, keep them in Thy name whom Thou hast given Me; that they may be one, as we also are. While I was with them, I kept them in Thy name. Those whom Thou gavest Me have I kept; and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition, that the scripture may be fulfilled. And now I come to Thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy filled in themselves. I have given them Thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world; as I also am not of the sanctificati in veritate. Non pro eis autem rogo tantum, sed et pro eis, qui credituri sunt per verbum eorum in me: ut omnes unum sint, sicut tu. Pater, in me, et ego in te, ut et ipsi in nobis unum sint: ut credat mundus, quia tu me misisti. Et ego claritatem, quam dedisti mihi, dedi eis: ut sint unum, sicut et nos unum sumus. Ego in eis, et tu in me: ut sint consummati in unum: et cognoscatur mundus, quia tu me misisti, et dilexisti eos, sicut et me dilexisti. Pater, quos dedisti mihi, volo, ut ubi sum ego, et illi sint mecum: ut videant claritatem meam, quam dedisti mihi: quia dilexisti me ante constitutionem mundi. Pater justus, mundus te non cognovit, ego atutem te cognovi, et hi cognoverunt, quia tu me misisti. world. Sanctify them in truth. Thy word is truth. As Thou hast sent Me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. And for them do I sanctify Myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth. And not for them only do I pray, but for them also who through their word shall believe in Me; that they all may be one, as Thou, Father, in Me, and I in Thee; that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that Thou hast sent me. And the glory which Thou hast given Me, I have given to them; that they may be one, as we also are one; I in them, and Thou in Me; that they may be made perfect in one: and the world may know that Thou hast sent Me, and hast loved them, as Thou hast also loved Me. Father, I will that where I am, they also whom Thou hast given Me may be with Me; that they may see My glory which Thou hast given Me, because Thou hast loved Me before the creation of the world. Just Father, the world hath not known Thee; but I have known Thee: and these have known that Thou hast sent Me. And I have made known Thy name to them, and will make it known; that the love wherewith Thou hast loved Me, may be in them, and I in them.

Passio Domini nostri Iesu Christi secundum Joannem. Joan. 18. 1-40; 19. 1-42

In illo tempore: Egressus est Jesus cum discipulis suis trans torrentem Cedron, ubi erat hortus, in quem introivit ipse, et discipuli ejus. Sciebat autem et Judas, qui tradebat eum, locum: quia frequenter Jesus convenerat illuc cum discipulis suis. Judas ergo cum accepisset cohoret, et a pontificibus et pharisaeis ministros, venit illuc cum lanternis, et facibus, et armis. Jesus itaque sciens omnia, quae ventura erant super eum, processit, et dixit eis: Quem queritis? Respondérunt ei: Jesum Nazarenum. Dicit eis Jesus: Ego sum. Stabat autem et Judas, qui tradebat eum, cum ipsis. Ut ergo dixit eis: Ego sum: abiérunt retrorsum, et cecidérunt in terram. Iterum ergo interrogavit eos: Quem queritis. Illi autem dixerunt: Jesum

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John. John 18. 1-40; 19. 1-42

At that time Jesus went forth with His disciples over the brook Cedron, where there was a garden, into which He entered with His disciples. And Judas also, who betrayed Him, knew the place: because Jesus had often resorted thither together with His disciples. Judas therefore having received a band of soldiers and servants from the chief priests and the Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. Jesus therefore, knowing that all things that should come upon Him, went forth and said to them: Whom seek ye? They answered Him: Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith to them: I am He. And Judas also, who betrayed Him, stood with them. As soon therefore as He had said to them:

Simon ergo Petrus habens gládium edúxit eum: et percússit pontíficis servum: et abscídit aurículam ejus déxteram. Erat autem nomen servo Malchus. Dixit ergo Jesus Petro: Mitte gládium tuum in vagínam; Cálicem, quem dedit mihi Pater, non bibam illum? Cohors ergo, et tribúnus. et ministri Judæórum comprehendérunt Jesum, et ligáverunt eum: et adduxérunt eum ad Annam primum; erat enim socer Caiphæ, qui erat póntifex anni illíus. Erat autem Cáiphas, qui consílium déderat Judæis: Quia expédit, unum hóminem mori pro pôpulo. Sequebátur autem Jesum Simon Petrus, et álius discípulus. Discípulis autem ille erat notus pontíficis, et introívit cum Jesu in átrium pontíficis. Petrus autem stabat ad óstium foris. Exívit ergo discípulus álius, qui erat notus pontíficis, et dixit ostiáriæ: et introdúxit Petrum. Dicit ergo Petro ancilla ostiária: Numquid et tu ex discípulis es hóminis istíus? Dicit ille: Non sum. Stabant autem servi, et minístri ad prunas: quia frigus erat, et calefaciébant se; erat autem cum eis et Petrus stans, et calefáciens se. Póntifex ergo interrogávit Jesum de discípulis suis, et de doctrína ejus. Respóndit ei Jesus: Ego palam locútus sum mundo: ego semper dócui in synagóga, et in templo, quo omnes Judæi convéniant; et in occúlto locútus sum nihil. Quid me intérrogas? intérroga eos, qui audiérunt quid locútus sim ipsis: ecce hi sciunt quæ dixerim ego. Hæc autem cum dixísset, unus assístens ministrorum dedit álapam Jesu, dicens: Sic respóndes pontíficis? Respóndit ei Jesus: Si male locútus sum, testimónium pérhibe de malo: si autem bene, quid me cædis? Et misit eum Annas ligátum ad Cáipham pontíficem. Erat autem Simon Petrus stans, et calefáciens se. Dixérunt ergo ei: Numquid et tu ex discípulis ejus es? Negávit ille, et dixit: Non sum. Dicit ei unus ex servis pontíficis, cognátus ejus, cuius abscídit Petrus aurículam: Nonne ego te in

I am He; they went backward and fell to the ground. Again therefore He asked them: Whom seek ye? And they said: Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered: I have told you that I am He. If therefore you seek Me, let these go their way; That the word might be fulfilled which He said: Of them whom Thou hast given Me, I have not lost anyone. Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. And the name of the servant was Malchus. Jesus therefore said to Peter: Put up thy sword in the scabbard. The chalice which My Father hath given Me, shall I not drink it? Then the band and the tribune and the servants of the Jews took Jesus, and bound Him. And they led Him away to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiphas, who was the high priest that year.

Now Caiphas was he who had given the counsel to the Jews: that it was expedient that one man should die for the people. And Simon Peter followed Jesus: and so did another disciple. And that disciple was known to the high priest and went in with Jesus into the court of the high priest. But Peter stood at the door without. The other disciple therefore, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the portress and brought in Peter. The maid therefore that was portress saith to Peter: Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith: I am not. Now the servants and ministers stood at a fire of coals, because it was cold, and warmed themselves. And with them was Peter, also, standing and warming himself. The high priest therefore asked Jesus of His disciples and of His doctrine. Jesus answered him: I have spoken openly to the world. I have always taught in the synagogue and in the temple, whither all the Jews resort: and in secret I have spoken nothing. Why asketh thou Me? Ask them who have heard what I have spoken unto them. Behold they know what things I have said. And when He had said these things, one of the servants, standing by, gave Jesus a blow, saying:

Respondérunt, et dixérunt ei: Si non esset hic malefáctor, non tibi tradidissémus eum. Dixit ergo eis Pilátus: Accípite eum vos, et secúndum legem vestram judicáte eum. Dixérunt ergo ei Judæi: Nobis non licet interfícere quemquam. Ut sermo Jesu implerétur, quem dixit, signíficans qua morte esset moritúrus. Introiívit ergo íterum in prætórium Pilátus, et vocávit Jesum, et dixit ei: Tu es rex Judæórum? Respóndit Jesus: A temetípsò hoc dicis, an álli dixérunt tibi de me? Respóndit Pilátus: Numquid ego Judæus sum? Gens tua, et pontífices tradidérunt te mihi: quid fecísti? Respóndit Jesus: Regnum meum non est de hoc mundo: si ex hoc mundo esset regnum meum, ministri mei útique decertárent, ut non tráderer Judæis: nunc autem regnum meum non est hinc. Dixit itaque eil Pilátus: Ergo rex es tu? Respóndit Jesus: Tu dicis, quia rex sum ego. Ego In hoc natus sum, et ad hoc veni in mundum, ut testimónium perhíbeam veritáti: omnis, qui est ex veritáte, audit vocem meam. Dicit ei Pilátus: Quid est véritas? Et cum hoc dixisset, íteru. exívit ad Judæos, et dicit eis: Ego nullam invénio in eo causam. Est autem consuetúdo vobis, ut unum dimittam vobis in Pascha: vultis ergo dimittam vobis regem Judæórum? Clamavérunt ergo rursum omnes, dicéntes: Non hunc, sed Barábbam. Erat autem Barabbas latro. Tunc ergo apprehendit Pilatus Jesum, et flagellávit. Et mílités plecténtes corónam de spinis, imposuérunt cápiti ejus; et veste purpúrea circumdedérunt eum. Et veniébant ad eum, et dicábant: Ave, Rex Judæórum: et dabant ei álapas. Answerest Thou the high priest so? Jesus answered him: If I have spoken evil, give testimony of the evil; but if well, why strikest thou Me? And Annas sent Him bound to Caiphas the high priest. And Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him: Art not thou also one of His disciples? He denied it and said: I am not. One of the servants of the high priest (a kinsman to him whose ear Peter cut off) saith to him: Did I not see thee in the garden with Him? Again therefore Peter denied; and immediately the cock crew. Then they led Jesus from Caiphas to the governor's hall. And it was morning; and they went not into the hall, that they might not be defiled, but that they might eat the Pasch. Pilate therefore went out to them, and said: What accusation bring you against this man? They answered and said to him: If He were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered Him up to thee. Pilate therefore said to them: Take Him you, and judge Him according to your law. The Jews therefore said to him: It is not lawful for us to put any man to death. That the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which He said, signifying what death He should die. Pilate therefore went into the hall again and called Jesus and said to Him: Art Thou the King of the Jews? Jesus answered: Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or have other told it thee of Me? Pilate answered: Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered Thee up to me. What hast Thou done? Jesus answered: My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My servants would certainly strive that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now My kingdom is not from hence. Pilate therefore said to Him: Art Thou a King then? Jesus answered: Thou sayest I am a king. For this was I born, and for this came I into the world; that I should give testimony of the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth My voice. Pilate saith to Him: What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews and saith to them: I find no cause

Dicit eis Pilátus: Accipite eum vos, et crucifigite: ego enim non invénio in eo causam. Respondérunt ei Judæi: Nos legem habémus, et secúndum legem debet mori, quia Fílium Dei se fecit. Cum ergo audísset Pilátus hunc sermónen, magis tímuit. Et ingréssus est prætórium íterum: et dixit ad Jesum: Unde es tu? Jesus autem respónsum non dedit ei. Dicit ergo ei Pilátus: Mihi non lóqueris? nescis, quia potestátem hábeo crucifigere te, et potestátem hábeo dimíttere te ? Respóndit Jesus: Non habéres potestátem advérsus me ullam, nisi tibi datum esset désuper. Proptérea qui me trádidit tibi, majus peccátum habet. Et exínde quærébat Pilátus dimíttere eum. Judæi autem clamabánt dicéntes: Si hunc dimítitis, non es amícus Cásaris. Omnis enim qui se regem facit, contradícit Cásari. Pilátus autem cum audísset hos sermónes, addúxit foras Jesum, et sedit pro tribunáli, in loco, qui díicitur Lithóstrotos, hebráice autem Gábbatha. Respondérunt pontífices: Non habémus regem, nisi Cásarem. Tunc ergo trádidit eis ilium, ut crucifigerétur. Suscepérunt autem Jesum, et eduxérunt. Et bájulans sibi crucem, exívit in eum, qui díicitur Calváriæ, locum, hebráice autem, Gólgotha; ubi crucifixérunt eum, et cum eo álios duos, hinc et hinc, médium autem Jesum. Scripsit autem et titulum Pilátus: et pósuit super crucem. Erat autem scriptum: Jesus Nazarénus, Rex Judæórum. Hunc ergo titulum multi Judæórum legérunt: quia prope civitátem, erat locus, ubi crucifixus est Jesus. Et erat scriptum hebráice, græce et latíne. Dicébant ergo Piláto pontífices Judæórum: Noli scribere. Rex Judæórum, sed quia ipse dixit: Rex sum Judæórum. Respóndit Pilátus: Quod scripsi, scripsi. Mílités ergo cum crucifixíssent eum, in Him. But you have a custom that I should release one unto you at the Pasch. Will you, therefore, that I release unto you the King of the Jews? Then cried they all again, saying: Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber. Then therefore Pilate took Jesus and scourged Him. And the soldiers plating a crown of thorns, put it upon His head; and they put on Him a purple garment. And they came to Him and said: Hail, King of the Jews. And they gave Him blows. Pilate therefore went forth again and saith to them: Behold, I bring Him forth unto you, that you may know that I find no cause in Him. (Jesus therefore came forth, bearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment.) And he saith to them: Behold the man. When the chief priests, therefore, and the servants had seen Him, they cried out, saying: Crucify Him, crucify Him. Pilate saith to them: Take Him you, and crucify Him; for I find no cause in Him. The Jews answered him: We have a law, and according to the law He ought to die, because He made Himself the Son of God. When Pilate, therefore, had heard this saying, he feared the more. And he entered into the hall again; and he said to Jesus: Whence art Thou? But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore saith to Him: Speakest Thou not to me? Knowest Thou not that I have power to crucify Thee, and I have power to release Thee? Jesus answered: Thou shouldest not have any power against Me, unless it were given thee from above. Therefore, he that hath delivered Me to thee hath a greater sin. And from henceforth Pilate sought to release Him. But the Jews cried out, saying: If thou release this Man, thou art not Caesar's friend. For whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar. Now when Pilate had heard these words, he brought Jesus forth and sat down in the judgment seat, in the place that is called Lithostrotos, and in Hebrew Gabbatha. And it was Parasceve of the Pasch, about the sixth hour; and he saith to the Jews:

Cum vidísset ergo Jesus matrem, et discípulum stantem, quem diligébat, dicit matri suæ; Múlier, ecce filius tuus. Deínde dicit discípulo: Ecce mater tua. Behold your King. But they cried out: Away with Him. Away with Him: Crucify Him. Pilate saith to them: Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered: We have no king but Caesar. Then, therefore, he delivered Him to them to be crucified.

And they took Jesus and led Him forth. And bearing His cross, He went forth to that place which is called Calvary but in Hebrew Golgotha.; where they crucified Him, and with Him two others, one on each side and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title also: and he put it upon the cross. And the writing was: Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews. This title therefore many of the Jews did read: because the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city. And it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and in Latin. Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate: Write not: The King of the Jews; but that He said: I am the King of the Jews.Pilate answered:What I have written, I have written. The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Him, took His garments (and they made four parts, to every soldier a part) and also His coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said then one to another: Let us not cut it, but let us cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the Scripture might be fulfilled which saith: They have parted My garemnts among them, and upon My vesture they have cast lots. And the soldiers indeed did these things. Now there stood by the cross of Jesus His Mother, and His Mother's sister, Mary of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalen. When Jesus therefore had seen His Mother and the disciple standing whom He loved, He saith to His Mother: Woman, behold thy son. After that, He saith to the disciple: Behold thy mother. And from that hour, the disciple took her to his own. Afterwards, Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said: I thirst. Now there was a vessel set there, full of vinegar. And they, putting a sponge full of vinegar about hyssop, put it to His mouth.

mos est Judæis sepelire. Erat autem in loco, ubi crucifixus est, hortus; et in horto monuméntum novum, in quo nondum quisquam pósitus erat. Ibi ergo propter Parascéven Ju-daeórum, quia juxta erat monuméntum, posuerunt Jesum.

Jesus therefore, when He had taken the vinegar, said: It is consummated. And bowing His head, He gave up the ghost.

Then the Jews (because it was the Parasceve), that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath day (for that was a great Sabbath day), besought Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came, and they broke the legs of the first, and of the other that was crucified with Him. But after they were come to Jesus, when they saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. But one of the soldiers with a spear opened His side, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he that saw it hath given testimony: and his testimony is true. And he knoweth that he saith true: that you also may believe. For these things were done that the Scripture might be fulfilled: you shall not break a bone of Him. And again another Scripture saith: They shall look on Him whom they pierced. And after these things, Joseph of Arimathea (because he was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews) besought Pilate that he might take away the Body of Jesus. And Pilate gave leave. He came therefore and took away the Body of Jesus. And Nicodemus also came (he who at the first came to Jesus by night), bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight. They took therefore the Body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths, with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury. Now there was in the place where He was crucified a garden: and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein no man yet had been laid. There, therefore, because of the Parasceve of the Jews, they laid Jesus, because the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

Let the house of Aaron now say, that His mercy endureth forever.

Let them that fear the Lord now say, that His mercy endureth forever.

In my trouble I called upon the Lord: and the Lord heard me, and enlarged me.

The Lord is my helper: I will not fear what man can do unto me.

The Lord is my helper: and I will look over my enemies.

It is good to confide in the Lord, rather than to have confidence in man.

It is good to trust in the Lord rather than to trust in princes.

Blessed are they that search His testimonies: that seek Him with their whole heart.

For they that work iniquity, have not walked in His ways.

Thou hast commanded Thy commandments to be kept most diligently

O! that my ways may be directed to keep Thy justifications.

Then shall I not be confounded, when I shall look into all Thy commandments.

I shall praise Thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned the judgments of Thy justice.

I will keep Thy justifications: O! do not Thou utterly forsake me.

By what doth a young man correct his way? by observing Thy words.

With my whole heart have I sought after Thee: let me not stray from Thy commandments.

Thy words have I hidden in my heart, that I may not sin against Thee.

Blessed art Thou, O Lord: teach me Thy justifications.

With my lips I have pronounced all the judgements of Thy mouth.

Adhæsi testimóniis tuis, Dómine: * noli me confundere.

GIVE bountifully to Thy servant, enliven me: and I shall keep Thy words.

Open Thou my eyes: and I will consider the wonderous things of Thy law.

I am a sojourner on the earth: hide not Thy commandments from me.

My soul have coveted too long for Thy justifications, at all times.

Thou hast rebuked the proud: they are cursed who decline from Thy commandments.

Remove from me reproach and contempt: because I have sought after Thy testimonies.

For princes sat, and spoke against me: but Thy servant was employed in Thy justifications.

For Thy testimonies are my meditation: and Thy justifications my counsel.

My soul hath cleaved to the pavement: quicken Thou me according to Thy word.

I have declared my ways, and Thou hast heard me: teach me Thy justifications.

Make me to understand the way of Thy justifications: and I shall be exercised in Thy wonderous works.

My soul hath slumbered through heaviness: strengthen Thou me in Thy words.

Remove from me the way of iniquity: and out of Thy law have mercy on me.

I have chosen the way of truth: Thy judgments I have not forgotten.

I have stuck to Thy testimonies, O Lord: put me not to shame.

The Reception of Converts

THE MODE OF RECEIVED FROM THE NEWLY CONVERTED THE PROFESSION OF FAITH ACCORD-ING TO THE FORM PRESCRIBED BY THE SACRED CONGREGATION OF THE HOLY OFFICE, THE 20TH JULY, 1859.

In the conversion of non-Catholics, inquiry should first be made concerning the validity of their former Baptism. If, therefore, it should be found, after diligent examination, either that no Baptism has been conferred, or that the one conferred was invalid, they must be baptized unconditionally. But if, after the inquiry, there remains a reasonable doubt as to the validity of their former Baptism, then it should be repeated conditionally after the form for the BAPTISM OF ADULTS OR INFANTS.

But if the former Baptism proves to have been valid, then only the ABJURATION or PROFESSION OF FAITH should be exacted. There are three ways of reconciling non-Catholics to the Church:

I. If Baptism is conferred unconditionally, neither Abjuration nor Absolution follows; for the Sacrament of Regeneration wipes away all the past.

II. If the Baptism is to be repeated conditionally, the order to be observed is: 1st. the ABJURATION, or PROFESSION OF FAITH. 2nd. CONDITIONAL BAPTISM. 3rd. SACRAMENTAL CONFESSiON with conditional absolution.

III. Lastly, when the former Baptism is judged to be valid, the ABJURATION or PROFESSION OF FAITH alone is received, followed by the ABSOLUTION FROM CENSURES. Should the convert, however, earnestly request that the rites omitted in his former Baptism be now supplied, the Priest may grant his pious desire. But in this case, he should use the form FOR ADULTS, with the changes made necessary by the validity of his former Baptism.

The Priest having on a surplice and violet stole, sits down before the middle of the Altar, if the Blessed Sacrament is not in the Tabernacle, otherwise on the Epistle side. The convert kneels down before him, and touching the book of Gospels with his right hand, makes his Profession of Faith. If he is not able to read, the Priest reads aloud the Profession of Faith, which the convert repeats distinctly after him.

Profession of Faith*

I, N.N., having before me the holy Gospels, which I touch with my hand, and knowing that no one can be saved without that faith which the Holy, Catholic, Apostolic, Roman Church holds, believes and teaches; against which I grieve that I have greatly erred, inasmuch as I have held and believed doctrines opposed to her teaching—

I now, with sorrow and contrition for my past errors, profess that I believe the Holy, Catholic, Apostolic, Roman Church to be the only and true Church established on earth by Jesus Christ, to which I submit myself with my whole soul.

I believe all the articles of Faith that she proposes to my belief, and I reject and condemn all that she rejects and condemns, and I am ready to observe all that she commands me. And I make the following profession of Faith:

* Short form p. 47

RECEPTION OF CONVERTS

I believe in One only God in three divine Persons, distinct from, and equal to, each other—that is to say, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost;

I believe in the Catholic doctrine of the Incarnation, Passion, Death, and Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ; and the personal union of the two Natures, the divine and the human; the Divine Maternity of the Most holy Mary, together with her most spotless Virginity

I believe in the true, real and substantial presence of the Body and Blood, together with the Soul and Divinity, of our Lord Jesus Christ, in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist

I believe in the seven sacraments instituted by Jesus Christ, for the salvation of mankind—that is to say, Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, Penance, Extreme Unction, Order, Matrimony.

I believe in Purgatory, the Resurrection of the Dead, and Everlasting Life.

I believe in the Primacy, not only of honor but also of jurisdiction, of the Roman Pontiff, successor of St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles, Vicar of Jesus Christ.

I believe in the veneration of the Saints and their images;

I believe in the authority of Apostolic and Ecclesiastical Traditions, and of the Holy Scriptures, which we must interpret and understand only in the sense which our holy Mother the Catholic Church has held, and does hold.

And I believe in everything else that has been defined and declared by the sacred Canons and by the General Councils, and particularly by the holy Council of Trent, and delivered, defined, and declared by the General Council of the Vatican, especially concerning the Primacy of the Roman Pontiff, and his infallible teaching authority.

With a sincere heart, therefore, and with unfeigned faith, I detest and abjure every error, heresy and sect opposed to the said Holy, Catholic, Apostolic and Roman Church. So help me. God, and these His holy Gospels, which I touch with my hand.

then while convert is still kneeling, the Priest sitting, says the MISERERE, or the DE PROFUNDIS page 46

The Priest then sits down and turning towards the kneeling convert, absolves him from his heresy, saying:

Then the Priest and the convert to the Baptismal Font.

In those dioceses which have special permission of the Holy See, the form for the Baptism of Infants may be used also for the Baptism of Adults.

Short Form

THIS SHORT FORM OF PROFESSION OF FAITH MAY BE USED ONLY IN CASES OF VERY GRAVE AND URGENT NECESSITY

Theologians teach that in case of urgent necessity, as of very grave illness, a short, comprehensive form of Profession of Faith may be used.

The following may serve as an example:

I, N.N., do sincerely and solemnly declare that, having been brought up in the Protestant Religion (or other Religion as the case may be), but now by the grace of God, having been brought to the knowledge of the Truth, I firmly believe and profess all that the Holy Catholic, Apostolic Roman Church believes and teaches, and I reject and condemn whatever she rejects and condemns.

Miserere, etc., p.45

By virtue of an Indult granted to many Ordinaries, the following short formula may be used in the conditional baptism of adult converts. This is the order: 1. Abjuration, or profession of faith. 2. Short formula below. 3. Sacramental Confession with conditional ablution.

* In doubt whether the penitent has incurred excommunication by his heresy, the priest must insert here the word forsán—perchance
